

PROCLAMATION

OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREENACRES, FLORIDA, PROCLAIMING “NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK” FOR MAY 15-21, 2016

WHEREAS, public works infrastructure, facilities, and services are of vital importance to sustainable communities and to the health, safety, and well-being of the people of Florida; and

WHEREAS, public works facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, engineers, managers, and employees from state and local units of government and the private sector, who are responsible for and must plan, design, build, operate and maintain the transportation, water supply, water treatment and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential to serve our citizens; and

WHEREAS, it is in the public interest for the citizens, civic leaders, and children in the United States of America to gain knowledge of and to maintain a progressive interest in and understanding the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and

WHEREAS, the year 2016 marks the 56th annual National Public Works Week sponsored by the American Public Works Association.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Samuel J. Ferreri, Mayor of the City of Greenacres, do hereby proclaim the week of May 15-21, 2016 as “National Public Works Week” in the City of Greenacres, Florida; and do hereby call upon citizens and civic organizations to recognize the contributions public works officials make every day to our health, safety, comfort, and quality of life.

Given under my Hand and Seal of the City of Greenacres, Florida, this 2nd day of May, 2016.

Samuel J. Ferreri, Mayor

Attest:

Denise McGrew, City Clerk
