Maintain a well planned, attractive community.

Promote a professional workforce through training and education.

Dear Greenacres Community...

On behalf of the City Council and our employees, we are pleased to present the 2008 Annual Report which provides information about the City, our key programs, and financial performance for the past year. The report provides an overview of the activities related to our organization's goals along with comparative performance measures that continue to demonstrate the City's efficiency and effectiveness in providing you with services.

According to Federal Government data, a national recession which began in December 2007, and continues to date, has severely impacted the private and public sectors causing job layoffs and bankruptcies. Due to continued State mandated limitations on property tax revenues, declines in property values, and collapse of the residential building market, the City experienced declines in revenues and increases in operating costs due to inflation, electric and fuel costs, and insurance premiums. The City was able to deal with the unprecedented challenges in 2008, through years of fiscal responsibility, long term planning and prioritization of services. Budget deficits were overcome without any job layoffs or noticeable reductions in services.

Greenacres was able to keep the 2009 property tax rate the same as 2008, which actually lowered property taxes due to the additional homestead exemption and tangible personal property exemption recently added to the State Constitution. We continued to provide the best services at the least cost due to the efficiency of government operations. Greenacres residents' cost for City government services remained the lowest ($641 per resident) in comparison to residents' cost in similar sized cities in the County, ($848 to $1,498 per resident). Services and facilities were enhanced utilizing a variety of grants, and the City received national recognition for its budget and comprehensive annual financial report from the Government Finance Officers Association.

The City was again recognized as a "Tree City USA" by the National Arbor Day Foundation, and one of the "100 Best Communities for Young People" by America's Promise - The Alliance for Youth. We are proud of the accomplishments made possible by the commitment of the City Council and employees, and the support of the community.

While the economic challenges will continue in 2009, we look forward to continuing to provide the best and most cost efficient public services, and to the collaboration with residents, the business community and civic organizations to continue to make Greenacres a great place to be.

Sincerely,

Samuel J. Ferreri

In Greenacres, we manage our organization by employing the best business practices and continually evaluate the quality and cost of our services to ensure that our residents and businesses get the best value in services and return on their public investment.

Performance Measurement

In 2004, we adopted a performance management system to manage for even better results from the citizen taxpayers perspective. Our performance measures include the inputs (resources to provide a service), outputs (amount of services), efficiency (productivity or unit cost), and effectiveness (quality of service). The performance measures are part of the City's annual budget which is based on allocating resources for plans, programs and strategies to accomplish our long term goals to help achieve our mission. The performance measurement system is used to evaluate our service delivery system to ensure its efficiency and effectiveness.

We also compare our actual efficiency and effectiveness measures with benchmarking data from comparably sized cities in order to continually look to improve our service delivery process.

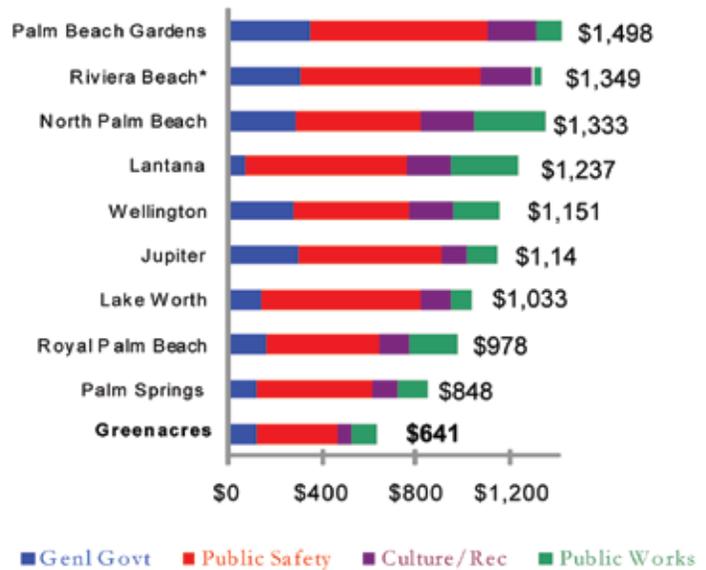

Demonstrated Efficiency

Benchmarking

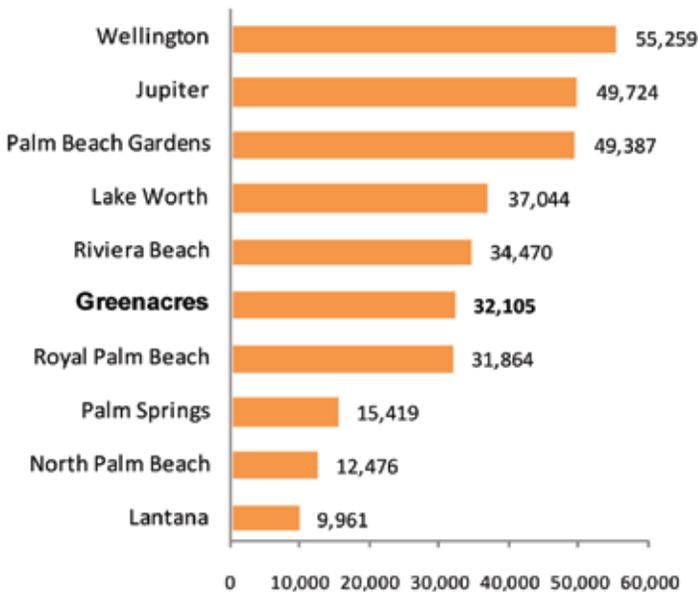

To assess our performance we analyzed the cost of our services with comparably sized and adjacent cities providing similar services. An indicator of efficiency is the cost per resident for city government services included in the general operating fund. Of the comparable cities, Greenacres residents have the lowest cost for city government services at $641 per resident. The analysis also shows that City residents have the lowest solid waste and recycling collection rates at $6.87 per month.

- Neighborhood Cleanup: On August 9, 2008, residents and volunteers turned out to clean up the Mil-Run Court Neighborhood in celebration of the annual International Coastal Cleanup. The event resulted in the collection of over 10,000 lbs. of trash collected on private properties, common areas, and adjacent canals.
- Arbor Day Celebration: The City of Greenacres was named a Tree City USA community by the Arbor Day Foundation for the seventeenth consecutive year. The City observed Arbor Day by hosting a tree planting ceremony on April 18, 2008, at the new City Hall Complex. Landscaping & Beautification

The Jog Road medians, from Forest Hill Boulevard to Lake Worth Road were enhanced with the installation of approximately 37,000 square feet of Bahia sod and 3,650 Bougainvillea plants. The project not only enhances one of the City's main corridors, it provides a heartier landscape that is less maintenance intensive, and is less reliant on water, fertilizer, and pesticides.

These City events had a combined attendance of over 28,000 with a 99% satisfaction rate from attendees.

Daddy Daughter Dance — Girls from four to seventeen years of age enjoyed dining and dancing the night away with their dads.

Neighborhood Improvement Program (NIP)

This program brings neighbors together to improve the physical appearance of neighborhoods and foster community pride. The targeted neighborhoods include the Original Section, Palm Beach Villas II, and Mil-Run Court. Several community block parties, and clean-up and beautification projects were completed in 2008. The Junior League of Palm Beach County organized a beautiful garden project for the City's Youth Afterschool Programs located at Community Hall and the Perry Building between Martin Ave. and Perry Ave. with over 35 nurseries donating $40,000 worth of materials.

This year, in recognition of Florida City Government Week, students created a "mock city" named the "Valley of Tropical Dreams." The project required city-wide involvement, and enabled students to obtain first-hand career exploration from City department presentations. Students held the "Valley's" grand opening on October 24, 2008, and hosted their families, the Mayor and City Council, Senator Aronberg, and Local, County, State, and School Board representatives.

Community Center

Over 542 rentals utilized the Community Center for children, baby boomers, and seniors to participate in programs, seminars, flu shots, and various other private and public activities. The Center offers our residents a convenient and friendly environment with various programs and opportunities.

The Center is a focal point for a large portion of the community and is the site of programs and classes such as: Karate, Tai-Chi, Yoga, Jazzercise, Watercolor painting, the daily Senior Congregate Meal program, Ballet/Tap, toddler programs, volleyball, basketball, "Learning to Speak English" classes, senior trips/dances, senior health fairs, annual immunization clinic, and much more.
